2019

Delaware Valley University

Class of 2019

In Memoriam

Dr. Joshua Feldstein, Delaware Valley University's Seventh President

To so many, Dr. Feldstein was DelVal. He was a two-time alumnus, a faculty member and an administrator as well as our president and a trustee. His association with the University lasted for more than 75 years, and he touched the lives of literally generations of students, faculty members, and alumni. He was a warm, caring, decent man whose wisdom and leadership benefited DelVal greatly.

The Class of 2019 Graduates

Dr. Benjamin Rusiloski noted a unique feature of many of this year's graduates:

“The Class of 2019 is the first class to enter DelVal as a university in 2015 and the first to graduate from it four years later. You made the university your own. You now have the knowledge and skills to go out and change the world.

Your university is proud of you. You are DVU.”

The Delaware Valley University Alma Mater

By the winding banks of Neshaminy stands our Alma Mater dear.

We look o'er the fields we love, cherished year by year.

We hail our colors green and gold as they proudly wave on high.

Treasured memories fond and true, in our hearts will lie.

With your inspiration great ever forward we will go.

Fearless of the task ahead, conquering each foe.

To you, our college, let us sing praises to your honored name.

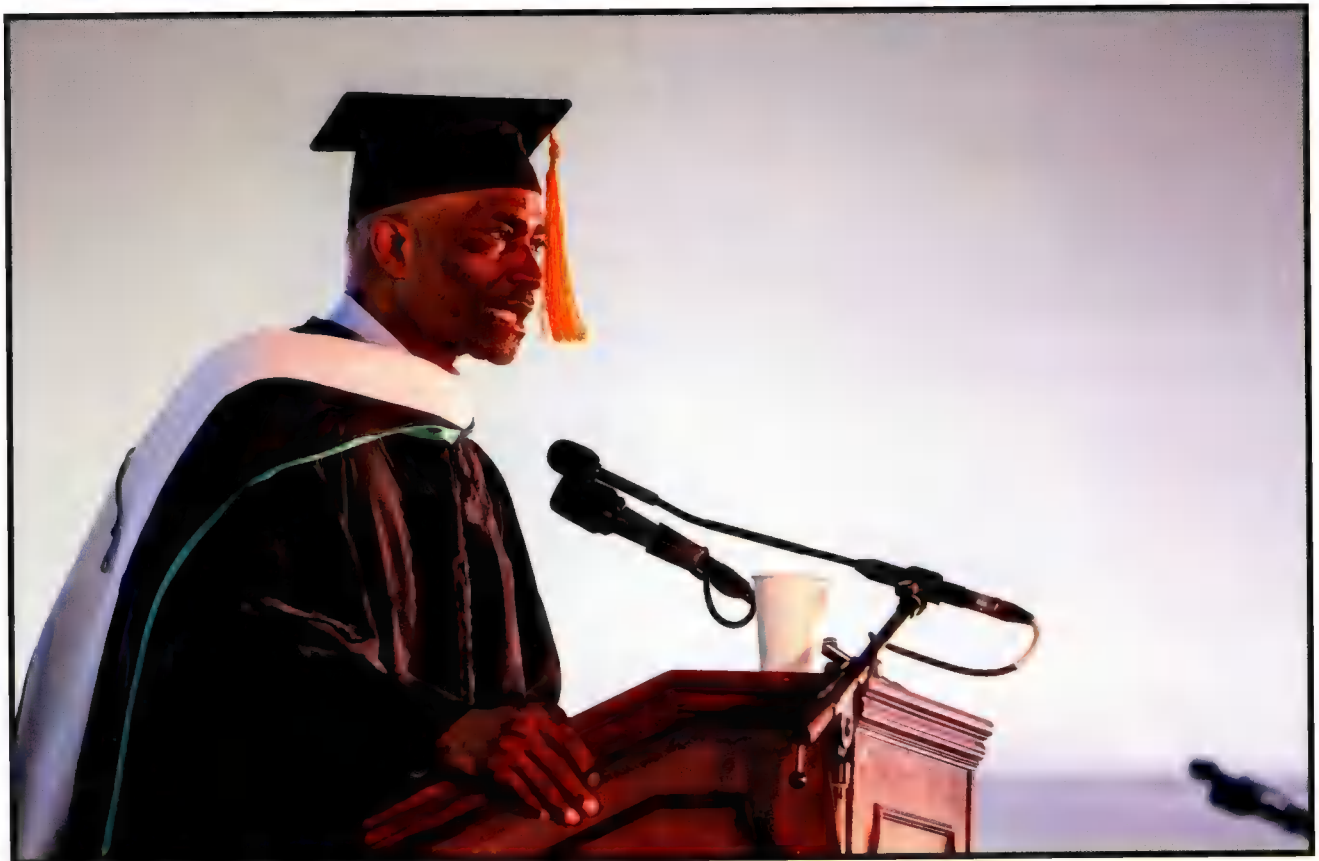

Courage, strength, and unity build an endless fame.

DeVal awarded an honorary degree to Dr. Salome Thomas-EL, who addressed the graduates as Commencement speaker. Dr. Thomas-EL, emphasized themes of sacrifice and service:

“I want you to understand that I came here today to ask you just one thing, to ask you to follow your journey. To follow your path and understand that you must choose impact over compliance. And don’t be afraid to get mad. Please, go out and make a difference. And stop praying for a lighter load and start praying for a stronger back.”
